

Community Service Program by Youth Red Cross Unit 21-03-2023

The Youth Red Cross volunteers from B. A., B.Sc. and M.sc Classes of our college have visited an old age home (Vruddashram) along with their Program Officer, Dr. N.D. Naik. They have distributed fruits, grocery items and first aid kit to the elderly people in the presence of the old age home staff. It is the recent community service program arranged by this service unit of our college. Volunteers have passed a message of the necessity of taking care of old people. Principal Dr. S. V. Gaonkar, Coordinator of IQAC, Dr. N. K. Nayak and all the staff members of the institute has extended their moral support to carry out this service.

